International Law Talk Podcast: The Graz discussions on private enforcement of competition law with Thomas Thiede

Lena Hornkohl (Deputy Editor) (Max Planck Institute Luxembourg) · Monday, July 25th, 2022

Two Germans meet in Graz to discuss private enforcement of competition law in the EU. Tune in for the first in-person interview of the competition edition of the International Law Talk Podcast. On a warm summer day in June, I interviewed Thomas Thiede on our favorite topic: private enforcement of competition law and its newest trends and developments. We discuss the developments surrounding the 2014 Damages Directive, damages calculation, presumption of damages, expert judges, disclosure, collective redress, leniency and much more.
