Conference announcement: 19th St.Gallen International Competition Law Forum ICF (June 7th and 8th)

Institute of European and International Business Law (University of St. Gallen, Institute of European and International Business Law) · Thursday, April 26th, 2012

The Institute of European and International Business Law from the University of St.Gallen, Switzerland is pleased to invite you to the 19th St.Gallen International Competition Law Forum ICF on June 7th and 8th 2012. Once again, leading experts in national, European and international competition law will come together to discuss and share their ideas on the latest trends and developments in the field and their practical implications.

The St.Gallen International Competition Law Forum ICF prides itself on being one of the most established events of its kind in Europe. It attracts influential policy shapers, this year, for example, Joaquín Almunia (European Commissioner for Competition), Andreas Mundt (President of the German Competition Authority) or William Kovacic (Former Commissioner of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission) as well as internationally renowned academic experts and leading business practitioners.

You will find all information on the conference in the programme flyer and under <http://www.sg-icf.ch>. As places are limited, we encourage early registration!

If you have further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Institute of European and International Business Law (europarecht@unisg.ch).

We very much look forward to seeing you this summer in St.Gallen!
