EVENT DEFERRED – The Notion of Restriction of Competition: Revisiting the Foundations of Antitrust Enforcement in Europe

Damien Gerard (College of Europe, Belgium) · Thursday, November 12th, 2015

11th ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE GLOBAL COMPETITION LAW CENTER

Thursday-Friday, November 26-27, 2015 from 9:00 AM onwards

THE NOTION OF RESTRICTION OF COMPETITION: REVISITING THE FOUNDATIONS OF ANTITRUST ENFORCEMENT IN EUROPE

Commissioner Margrethe Vestager, Bernard Amory, Christopher Bellamy, Yves Botteman, Cristina Caffarra, Peter Camesasca, Pascale Déchamps, Raphaël De Coninck, Carles Esteve-Mosso, Luc Gyselen, Pablo Ibanez-Colomo, James Killick, William Kovacic, Nicholas Levy, Andrea Lofaro, Cecilio Madero, Imelda Maher, Massimo Merola, Bernd Meyring, Renato Nazzini, Damien Neven, Robert O’Donoghue, Luis Ortiz Blanco, Jorge Padilla, Ben Smulders, Robbert Snelders, John Temple Lang, Sven Völcker, Denis Waelbroeck

The transformations induced by the process of “modernization”, including in its substantive dimension, as well as recent judgments by the EU Courts, have left many lawyers and economists wary as to the standards actually governing findings of antitrust infringement under EU competition law, thereby affecting their ability to advise businesses effectively on the design of their commercial practices. While not ignoring institutional constraints, this conference intends to revisit the notion of restriction of competition in the framework of Articles 101 and 102 TFEU with a view to taking stock of recent developments, to identifying common trends and to informing the application of core EU antitrust principles in current market contexts. Associating lawyers and economists, practitioners and academics, it seeks both to revisit long-standing theories of harm to competition and to explore novel forms of antitrust concerns.
